

Future Fuel Contracting

With the country slowly reopening, the industry predicts that fuel use will increase, which will in turn increase demand and prices over the coming months. Currently, Ag Partners has options for contracting fuel through 2021, and potentially 2022.

INTRODUCING THE 2020 INTERNS

Braten Baker

Ag Partners is excited to have Braten Baker, a summer Agronomy Intern for Regions 1 and 2, join our team this summer. Braten is a senior at Kansas State University majoring in Agricultural Business. He will be working alongside Agronomy Account Manager, Ryan Peterson, for the summer.

Braten comes to us from Auburn, Kansas. His family owns an underground directional drilling company where he worked until transferring to Kansas State University in 2018. In his spare time, he enjoys spending time outdoors and hanging out with his friends.

hunting, fishing, camping, and attending Kansas State University sporting games.

EVAN

Ag Partners is excited to have Evan Bott, a summer Agronomy Intern for Region 1, join our team this summer. Evan is a sophomore at Kansas State University majoring in Agronomy. He will be working alongside Agronomy Account Manager, Ryan Gierhan, for the summer.

Evan comes from a family of four and lives on a family farm in Palmer, Kansas. He enjoys hunting and hanging out with friends in his free time.

Haley Kabourek

Ag Partners is excited to have Haley Kabourek, a summer Grain Intern, join our team this summer. Haley is a senior at Northwest Missouri State University majoring in Agricultural Business. She will be working alongside Assistant Grain Manager, Lucy Heinen, for the summer.

Haley has two younger sisters. She grew up around her family hobby farm where they have cattle, sheep, and goats. Growing up around the farm, being active in FFA, and coming from an agricultural community led her to pursue a career in agriculture. In her free time, Haley enjoys being outdoors and whitetail deer hunting with both rifle and bow.
