Financing your feed, especially on a no-interest finance offer, has many advantages to you that are hard to pass up:

- Financial certainty knowing that your rate is locked in and can't fluctuate through the season.
- Maximizes your cash flow by keeping your operating line and cash available for unforeseen expenses.
- Ability to delay your feed payments until you sell your animals.
- Offers an additional resource from which to establish and maintain a profitable operation.
- No interest cost, which wouldn't be the case with an operating line of credit and only comes when you pay cash.

NEW

Eligible commercial customers may finance feed for the production and sale of commercial deer herds and exotic game animals (excluding water & upland fowl).

Please ask your Purina retailer for eligibility requirements.
