

November 1, 2022

The Heritage Cooperative Board of Directors is now accepting applications for potential director candidates. Heritage Cooperative currently has four voting regions and only members living in each respective region can vote for that candidate.

The 2023 Regions up for election are:

Region 1: Currently held by Dennis Comstock. Potential candidates must live in one of the following counties: Williams, Fulton, Lucas, Defiance, Henry, Wood, Paulding, Putnam, Hancock, Van Wert, Allen, Hardin, Auglaize, Mercer, Shelby, Logan, Champaign, Miami, Darke, Clark, Greene, Montgomery, Preble, Butler, Warren, Clinton, Brown, Clermont, Hamilton.

Region 2: Currently held by Phil Herring. Potential candidates must live in one of the following counties: Seneca, Wyandot, Crawford, Marion, Union, Delaware, Madison, Franklin, Fayette, Pickaway, Ottawa, Sandusky, Erie, Lorain, Huron, Ashland, Richland, Morrow, Knox, Fairfield, Ross, Pike, Highland, Adams, Scioto.

Region 3: Currently held by Lamar Liming. Potential candidates must live in one of the areas: Coshocton, Tuscarawas, Harrison, Jefferson, Carroll, Columbiana, Mahoning, Stark, Cuyahoga, Lake, Geauga, Ashtabula, Trumbull, Portage, Summit, Medina, Wayne, Holmes, and the state of Pennsylvania.

Region 4: Currently held by Ken Schilling. Potential candidates must live in one of the areas: Licking, Muskingum, Guernsey, Belmont, Monroe, Noble, Morgan, Perry, Hocking, Vinton, Athens, Washington, Meigs, Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence, and the states of West Virginia, North Carolina, Nevada, Maryland, Florida, Arizona, and Virginia.

To request an application to become a candidate, please contact Jamie Adams, facilitator of applications for the Nominating Committee.

Email: jadams@heritagecooperative.com or

Call: 513-349-6712

The deadline to submit an application is December 31, 2022.